

Consolidation does not support or lead to diversification. We need rules that support the public interest. Without the free flow of information this nation is not free. Strengthen, don't weaken the current FCC ownership rules.